

PRIMEURS Les Crus Bourgeois du Médoc

A record year: 235 Châteaux present their 2012 vintage

235 wines will be presented tomorrow morning at the tasting organised by the Alliance des Crus Bourgeois du Médoc at Château d'Agassac.

This is a unique opportunity for journalists and professionals to taste the 2012 vintage across seven prestigious AOCs: Médoc, Haut-Médoc, Margaux, Moulis, Listrac Médoc, Pauillac and Saint-Estèphe.

Efficiency and Diversity: The tasting has been organized on a self-service basis, so professionals and journalists can taste the wines of their choice at their own pace.

Variety & Quality: The certainty of tasting the variety and quality of superb Médoc wines in one location.

Two Tastings in one

- All day tasting available for professionals
- A work area reserved for journalists in the Château

Professionals who have not registered on the Alliance des Crus Bourgeois du Médoc website will be issued with an entry pass at reception on presentation of their business card.

A rare opportunity to taste 235 wines in one location!
9, 10 & 11 April - 9.30am to 6.30pm

For interview requests, please contact the Alliance des Crus Bourgeois du Médoc.

Press contacts

Frédéric de Luze - President

Frédérique de Lamothe - Director